HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

"He was born with a roaring voice, and it had the trick of inflaming half-wits."

So wrote H. L. Mencken, the "Sage of Baltimore," along about 1925 in summing up the completed career of William Jennings Bryan, orator and perennial presidential candidate. .

Mencken himself died this week at 75 . . . As the foremost idol-smasher of his time, he undoubtedly would have enjoyed reading his own obituary notices. The two or three Mencken obits I read this week were laudatory, for the most part—probably because "nothing but good about the dead" is a journalistic custom, but also because newspapermen inevitably become skeptics and have something of the Mencken streak in them.

Skeptics, I said—not cynics. Any newspaperman worth his salary believes practically nothing he hears and only half what he sees, until he checks the facts.

* * *

Which brings up the old crack, "Publicity is what people want to get into the paper—news is what they want to keep out."

And so now we will consider the disgraceful riots after basketball games, involving high school "students," which resulted in the Board of Education banning night games.

These things have been going on for some time but usually they didn't get into the papers. The juvenile authorities and the schools had the ostrich-like attitude that if nothing was printed, then nothing really had happened and, besides, they must protect their precious juvenile delinquents at all cost.

Here are my conclusions, arrived at over a period of years:

1—The definition of "juvenile" as anybody under 18 should be modified to under 15. The 15-, 16- and 17-year-olds who commit serious crimes should be treated as adults—their names should be printed in the newspapers and they should be subject to the same penalties as older offenders.

2—The compulsory school attendance "ceiling" should be dropped from 18 to 16 years.

3—Juveniles convicted of felonies should not be permitted to attend regular high schools and contaminate the other kids.

4—Newspapers should take stock of the situation and perhaps go back to the custom of identifying miscreants by race.

* * *

If a disproportionate number of any racial group is committing crimes in San Diego, then everybody should know about it. The law-abiding members of that group could point the finger of scorn at the criminals and the general public might take steps to remedy conditions which create crime.

Yeah, I know. No minority group wants to be tarred by the brush of publicity applied to its criminal element. And yet—you don't see any Japanese names in San Diego crime reports, do you?

I've been an advocate of racial tolerance for many years; however, San Diego has become a dumping ground for hoodlums from far and wide and I'm getting tired of it.

I strongly suspect that a disproportionate number are members of certain minority racial groups.

The eggheads will tell you that these hoodlums are underprivileged, so they express their frustration in violence.

Yeah, and some of them are semi-savages armed with knives . . . Should we coddle 'em?

Dr. Richmond Barbour, former principal, will attend, and past PTA presidents will be honored.—From Union Title Insurance & Trust Co. Historical Collection.

This particular meeting is planned to accomodate citizens in the central and southwestern areas of the city which includes Ocean Beach, Point Loma, Mission Hills, and downtown San Diego.

Mrs. Barbara Joyce, president of Dewey PTA is coordinating the social period which will be held from 7-7:30 prior to the Board meeting. PTA presidents from 17 schools will serve as hostesses. Coffee and light refreshments will be supplied by Loma Council PTA. The public is also invited to attend this social period.

Ocean Beach was invaded by pirates—Cub Scout size—Friday evening when Pack 28's pirate ship docked at the Community Center to hunt treasure and fight for personal honors.

Pirates of Den 3 won the jousting contest while the best knots were tied the quickest by the Long John Silvers of Den 11. Pirates from Den 8 took the balloon bust.

HEART ASSOCIATION STARTS DRIVE TO RAISE $100,000

"New Hope for Hearts."

That was the slogan today in the city and county as the San Diego County Heart Association opened its month-long drive for $100,000 to fight mankind's greatest killer—heart disease.

Dr. A. L. Edgar, president of the Heart Association, pledged that 66% of all funds collected in San Diego County will be applied here on research, education and community service and for the continued maintenance of the Heart Center in Sharp Hospital and Mercy Hospital Vascular Test Center.

Stressing the importance of the Association's work, Edgar pointed out that last year alone, more than 53% of the deaths in San Diego County were caused from diseases of the heart—more than twice as many as all other diseases and accidents!

No house to house solicitation will be attempted, Edgar said. Success will depend on contributions mailed to the Heart Association headquarters at 1651 Fourth Ave., and upon coins and bills deposited in the red plastic banks now in place on store counters, in restaurants, post offices and other public places.

Urging public support, Edgar declared: "Many misconceptions about heart diseases have persisted through the years, despite long strides made by the medical professional in better understanding and control of the problems. In the past, fear and fatalism have created the attitude that nothing could be done about heart disease. Today, there is new hope for hearts!"

Pt. Loma To Play Mission Bay Fri.

Point Loma High School's varsity basketball team will play Mission Bay there tomorrow at 2:45 p.m., with the "B" game following.

The B's are undefeated in league play, winning nine out of 10 games to date. The only loss was to non-league Chula Vista. Bill Fox is high-point man with 163.

The varsity, sparked by the return to action of Bill Chadwell and Eddie Sada, has improved lately and looked exceedingly good against Hoover last Tuesday before dropping a 42-36 decision in an overtime game.

They suffered a relapse in the first quarter against San Diego High Friday and the Cavers built up a big lead. The final score was San Diego 61, Pt. Loma 37, with Chadwell tossing in 14 points for the locals.

Randy Remains In Hospital But 'Making Progress'

Four-year-old Randy Thayer still occupies a bed in the pediatric section of Mercy Hospital where he has been since Oct. 14. Randy, who was hit by a truck on Voltaire St., is reported "making good progress.."

It was thought at first that amputation of the right leg would be necessary, but through the use of a machine from the vascular section of the hospital, blood circulation was detected in the badly mangled leg, and plans were set in motion for repair of the limb.

Mrs. Mamie Thayer, of 4636 Lotus St., said "the break just below the knee has healed but the knee is unable to bend. The major part of skin grafting has been completed and an attempt to repair the lower portion will be undertaken although the nerves in that section are entirely severed."

Randy still faces the prospect of amputation just above the knee if the results of this latest development are not satisfactory.

Mrs. Clyde Hooper, grandmother with whom the family resides, wishes "to thank the many people and organizations who have helped through this ordeal."

Motorists Warned Of Registration Deadline Feb. 4

All California motorists wee alerted today to avoid penalties on their 1956 license plates by obtaining their registration renewals before midnight, Saturday, February 4.

To give late applicants an extra margin of time, the Department announces it will keep all of its permanent and temporary offices open on Saturday to 5 p.m. They were originally scheduled to close Saturday noon.

Applications mailed Saturday evening with a postmark earlier than midnight will be accepted as pentlty-free.

Penalties set up in State laws double the flat $8 annual registration fee imposed on all vehicles, thus increasing this portion of the fee to $16. And the law increases the license fee portion of the total by 50 per cent when it is paid after the penalty deadline. Fee statements issued by the Department show the combined amounts as a single total.

Persons mailing their applications to Department of Motor Vehicles, Sacramento, are cautioned to forward the entire statement card with their fees. The stub must not be detached. It will be returned by the Department after the registration is renewed.

SEA SQUARES DANCE EVERY FRIDAY NIGHT

Square dances, sponsored by the Sea Squares Club, are held every Friday evening, from 8 to 10:30 p.m., in the Parish Hall at Saint Peter's By the Sea Lutheran Church, 1371 Sunset Cliffs Blvd.

Pt. Loma Anglers Get Their Share Of Large Fish

Bad weather literally cut a swath right through the middle of the fishing week, but deep sea anglers more than made up for lost time by resuming the exceptional hauls of red cod, groupers, ling, and cow cod the minute the storm had passed.

Since the progress of the storm was slow and it was not attended by the usual high winds, fishing conditions were found to be next to perfect when the sportfishing boats operating from the Municipal Sportfishing Pier returned to action. Many limit strings were taken, and those invariably were well sprinkled with large fish.

Big ling cod stole some of the limelight from the big cow cod which had accounted for most of the boat jackpots for several weeks. One of the largest of the lings was a 24 pounder caught by H. P. O'Connell, San Diego, but it was closely pressed by a 23 pounder taken by D. W. Wallace, La Jolla, and a 22 pounder caughtby Major Harry Halladay, 3211 Edith Lane.

Bobby Beyrer, 3604 Quimby, was another of the Point Loma anglers who fared exceptionally well, and he accounted for a limit of red cod topped by three lings and a cow cod.

Fishermen often were treated to grandstand seats to the big whale migration, but the best bets for those who wished to view or photograph the big mammals from close range were the whale trips of sportfishing boats leaving the sportfishing pier at the foot of Fenelon. Trips are scheduled at 12:30 on week days, 10 a.m., 12:30, and 3 p.m. on weekends.

Obey Traffic Laws And Live Longer

"Know and obey traffic laws."

The San Diego County and National Traffic Safety Councils are urging the observance of this "lifeline of the month" during February by motorists and pedestrians.

"It is very simple to learn the traffic laws and it is simple to obey them if all of us will remember that undue risks and violations often result in serious injury and deaths," the local traffic safety council said.

"Persons who brazenly and purposely defy the laws of the road are bound to come to grief sooner or later.

"We urge this 'lifeline of the month' be taken seriously during February and at all other times to bring about a reduction of the traffic toll in San Diego County."

NOBILITY HONORED—Mr. and Mrs. Alex DeBakcsy entertained Tuesday evening with a dinner party honoring Lady Baden-Powell, World Chief Guide and Girl Scout, who is on an eight-months tour of the world. Lady B. P., as she is affectionately called, was the speaker at the Girl Scout Annual Meeting Thursday. She also took part in the cornerstone ceremony for the new Girl Scout building in Balboa Park.

Guests at the dinner party included Messrs. and Mmes. Harold C. Smith, Leroy Wright, III, Arthur G. Anderson, L. W. Bateman, Jr., Morris W. Dudley, Dr. and Mrs. George Egenolf and Mrs. William A. Miller. For her English guest, Mrs. DeBakcsy chose to serve, buffet style, curry on rice, tossed salad and cheese cake.

Following the dinner Lady B. P. spoke to Dana Junior High Girl Scouts who were guests of Troop 304 at All Souls Episcopal Church. This was the only troop appearance her ladyship made during her month's visit in San Diego.

HEARD AND LIKED — Lady Olave Baden-Powell, who is vice president of the International Council of Boy Scouts, told of meeting with a group of Cub Scouts. "You know," she said in addressing a Girl Scout audience, "Cub Scouts are He-Brownies."

ALSO HEARD — For weeks the dieting mother had been eating alone in the kitchen. On the firse evening she emerged to have dinner with her family, her teenager remarked, "Whatsamatter, Mom, slumming?"

WHEN IN ROME — When Mrs. George Egenolf of 933 Rosecrans planned a tea recently for Lady Baden-Powell, she was in quite a dilemma about the proper way to brew the beverage which is distinguished as England's national drink.

She made numerous inquiries from her friends of English background and from people who had traveled to England. Then she gathered together the proper vessels and stirred and mixed and poured according to the best available information.

And Lady B. P. said, "The tea is delicions."

Next day Mrs. Egenolf attended a tea given by Lady B. P. at her guest cottage in La Jolla. She was served a Lipton's tea bag in a paper cup of hot water.

And Mrs. Egenolf said, "The tea is delicious."

Mrs. Arthur Attebery is chairman of entertainment; Mrs. Joseph Luther, program; Mrs. Fred Seaborg, tickets; Mrs. Ralph Tamm, favors; Mrs. Philip Meredith, door prizes and Mrs. Donald Shirk, publicity.

The 69 churches of the Southeastern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, which takes in the counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, Orange, Imperial and San Diego, have sent more than ten tons of clothing and bedding for the homeless families in that area.

"In 1955 the Adventist churches of this area contributed more than $800,000 worth of welfare work, including cash donated, clothing, food, persons helped and working hours donated," announced D. E. Dirksen, Welfare Director for the Southeastern California Conference.

Woman's Club To Celebrate Its 30th Year

By MARIAN KRETTLER

At noon, Feb. 9, the Ocean Beach Woman's Club will celebrate the 30th year of its existence with a luncheon, closed to all but members.

The women of the club will not work that day, the food will be catered and that explains why all reservations must be made by Friday, Feb. 3, with the hostess committee. Phone either Mrs. W. E. Brautigam, AC-2-5282, or Mrs. E. Laubaugh, AC-3-0308 for a place at the luncheon if not previously contacted by the telephone chairman.

Past presidents, life members and other officers will be honored and Mrs. Martin Hunting, historian, will speak of the beginning and progress of the Woman's Club.

Mrs. David E. Fraser, treasured by the club since its inception, and a prominent figure in Federation for many years, will be the guest speaker. She will be introduced by Mrs. Ralph Stothard, program chairman.

ORDER OF AMARANTH

Pacific Beach Court 104, Order of the Amaranth, will hold their regularly scheduled business meeting Friday at 8 p.m. in the Point Loma Masonic Temple, 1711 Sunset Cliffs Blvd. Royal Matron Marie June Buirch and Royal Patron Charles H. Ludlow will preside. Honored Lady Marie Page will be chairman of the aftercourt party.

Dog Show Deadline Set For Feb. Sixth

Entries for the Silver Bay Kennel Club annual All-Breed Dog Show, Feb. 19 in the Electric Building, Balboa Park, are pressing the deadline and promise one of the largest shows in the history of the event, according to Jack Bradshaw, superintendent.

But Bradshaw warned also that midnight Monday, Feb. 6 is the final date for receipt of entries and urged fanciers planning to compete in the canine congress to be sure to observe this filing date.

"The processing of entries for a show of this major caliber," said the superintendent, "requires a lot of time and all show applications, for this reason, must be in my headquarters, 1412 W. 12th St., Los Angeles 15, by Feb. 6 midnight."

The pace of early entries indicates the exhibit will bring together another record list of blue ribbon dogs and an astounding variety of breeds. The annual shows are noted for the number of exceptionally rare and seldom seen breeds.

Adult Education Courses Open Here

Thirty-one courses in adult education offered by the Northwest Adult High School opened this week in Ocean Beach, Point Loma, and Roseville, according to A. Frederick Bunge, principal.

Information may be obtained by calling AC-3-3121 (5:30 to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday) or HU-8-8385.

Prize For Script Won By Dr. Rust

Dr. William C. Rust, president of California Western University, has won $100 for his script, "For Us, The Living," prepared for the United Success Drive's "An American Dedication" which was presented in Balboa Bowl, last October 2.

The Inter-Faith Council of Fontana, Calif., held a script competition this year for its brotherhood program to be presented during February, "Brotherhood Month."

Dr. Rust won top honors as well as $100 contributed by the Kaiser Steel Corp. for the prize. "For Us, The Living" will be presented in Fontana on Feb. 24 and 25.

The program tells the story of the development of American traditions and ideals. As presented here last fall, it featured a massed interfaith chorus, verse-speaking choir, folk songs, folk dances and the Starlight Opera Orchestra under the baton of Julius Leib.

O.B. Lioness Club

An impressive candlelight ceremony was used by Mrs. Roscoe Griswold, president of the La Jolla Lioness Club, when she installed the 1956 slate of officers of the Ocean Beach Lioness Club. Mrs. Griswold, in a short talk, gave the club the purposes and aims of Lionism, and urged the club to work for community benefit.

During the business meeting which followed, it was voted to have a member represent the club in the Lioness Council of San Diego County. The president, Mrs. Lee Coley, will be this member.

Plans were completed for the February meeting, a potluck supper, at which time the members will have their husbands as guests. Mrs. Ellen Brodie and Mrs. Lucille Woodward signed the by-laws and became new members.

After the business meeting was closed, Mrs. Charles Edwards, hostess for the evening served refreshments.

TEXTILE PAINTING CLASS

Persons interested in learning Textile Painting are invited to visit the class which meets Thursdays, 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., at the O. B. Community Center.

Enrollment of beginners will be taken with the start of the new semester Feb. 2. There will be an exhibit of work done by students in the class.

Peninsula PERSONALITIES

By AVIS STONE

The Christmas-time floods that did so much damage in northern California will long be remembered by the Vroonan family who have recently returned from a three-week stay in that area during which they attended the installation of Mrs. Vroonan's sister, Marguerite, as worthy advisor of the Rainbow Chapter of Corning Assembly 36, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew (Mickey) Vroonan and their four children Gary, Sherrill, Diane, and Debro Ann, left their home on Long Branch Ave. to drive to Corning where plans had been made to spend the holidays with their relatives.

The travelers got an early start at 4 a.m. on Friday, Dec. 23, and unknown to them at that time was the danger of a break in the levee at Yuba City.

Evidence of that break was soon encountered and traffic was bumper to bumper for an entire 150-mile detour. At yet another point, a bridge that was ready to capsize forced the travelers to re-route again.

In an account given by Mrs. Vroonan upon their return here she stated, "It is nearly impossible to imagine the damage done. Water was just everywhere, and as we drove slowly along, many times the only things visible were the tops of cars that had gone off the road into side ditches. In many instances the water had climbed as high as the second story of farm houses we passed."

The Vroonans had some anxious moments on the drive from Los Angeles to Corning when the car containing her brother, William Smiley and his two girls, Linda and Debra Kay, also the Vroonan girl, Sherrill, was delayed for six and one-half hours by bridge repairs and road conditions.

The return trip here was very much like a repeat performance with the threat of another break following.

The Peninsula is fast acquiring the reputation of being a place that if visited once a return trip is called for, and such has been the case of two newcomers here.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bishop, who previously claimed Nashville, Tenn., as their home tomn, have taken up residence in the 2200 block on Seaside. Mr. Bishop was here during his Navy career and liked the vicinity so well that he returned here to live.

Another family, who upon completion of service have decided to make this area their home, are Mr. and Mrs. Louie Alessio, who have purchased property in the 4700 block on Del Mar Ave. The Alessio family formerly resided in West Virginia, and have two children Saundra 9, and Dennis 6.

From Long Beach have come two new families who are already settled in the community: Mr. and Mrs. James G. Brown who reside in the 1600 block on Sunset Cliffs Blvd., and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Davis and their 10 month-old-baby, June, who now live in the 4600 block on Muir Ave.

Happy to be back home here and quite surprised and pleased with changes made, is the family of Comdr. U. S. N. and Mrs. Arnold Allemand. Mr. and Mrs. Allemand and their three children, Arnold Jr., Cherrie, and baby Haidi, have recently come from Whitby Island, Oak Harbor, Washington, and have purchased their new home in the 1700 block on Warrington.

Dut to a business transfer, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith have left their former residence at 4825 Coronado Ave. and are traveling by car to Cocoa Beach Fla. for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Smith, who is known as Pauline by her coworkers at the A. & L. store on Newport Ave. where she has been an employee for the past five years, hopes for an early return.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hixson have moved into their new home on John St., and are very pleased to be in this area.

Another new family has decided that the Peninsula is the place to build a home with a view from every window, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Winrow have been quite busy getting settled in their new home in the 4400 block on Del Mar Ave.

Clarke To Discuss Satire Tuesday

When does satire succeed in showing society its faults through ridicule and when does it go too far?

These questions will be answered by John Robert Clarke, author and historical interpreter, in a lecture called "The Psychology of Satire," to be given Tuesday, February 7, at 8 p.m., at House of Hospitality, Balboa Park.

Yet, "satire is the most dangerous weapon of literature and the one most frequently known to backfire," Clarke will tell his audience. He will show how satire from Aristophanes to Chaplin has exerted pressure through ridicule as a corrective upon society.

All of the current "Adventures in Living" lectures, now given in Hollywood each week as well as locally, are open to the public and are followed by coffee and a discussion forum.

Other lectures, to be presented on consecutive Tuesday evenings, are: "John Keats and the Masks of Romanticism," "G. B. Shaw and the Singing Commercials," "Seven Rings of Sigmund Freud," "Gandhi and the 'World' Society," and "Tomorrow's Schools and the Dance of Life."
